

Jon Crane Watercolors Releases 3rd Giclée in Meeker Ranch Series

Jon Crane Watercolors is pleased to announce a special Christmas release, which is the third print in Crane's Meeker Ranch Series. The painting entitled "Neighbors" is a depiction of the smallest house on the Meeker Ranch property – a birdhouse in an Aspen tree. It serves as a poignant reminder of the need for preservation of both human and wildlife habitat in this historic setting.

The Black Hills Historic Preservation Trust is currently spearheading a fundraising effort to protect two Black Hills properties belonging to the National Forest Service, one of which is the Meeker Ranch east of Custer. Crane is donating 15% of sales on all artwork he creates of the Meeker Ranch to this preservation fund.

A Meeker Ranch giclée print provides the opportunity to give twice, once to a loved one and once to historic preservation.
